Dear Counsellor:

I have just talked to the Phila Ball Club, they also have a boy in Mexico, who went away owing them several hundred dollars. I told Mr. Gottlieb, the owner of the Phila Stars to contact you with all necessary information, so that if you are successful in breaking this Mexican thing down, you could also make this man, McHenry return here and pay up his debt.

In looking over the account, I see Dandridge left owing me $16.40, it isn't much but it is something.

Will look to hear from you soon.

Very truly yours,
